THE NEWS

The Draft and Commutation.

There is stirring news from Grant. On Saturday morning last, having everything in readiness, our forces blew up one of the principal forts of the enemy in front of Petersburg. It is said to have contained 10 guns, and the dispatches state that nearly two rebel regiments of South Carolinians were annihilated by the explosion. Our reports further state, that there has been a hotly contested fight going on since the 2nd of last month, with considerable loss on both sides, and with varying success. At the present writing we are not prepared to say that our side has gained any great advantage. The account that we publish, relating to the preliminary movements, seem to prove something better than has yet been announced. We have great faith in Grant and the royal army under his command.

The rebel incursion northward attracts some attention, especially in the important state of Pennsylvania. The enemy having captured and burned the larger portion of Chambersburg, it is confidently expected that there will soon be something done to repel the invaders. The number of houses burned is set down at 200 and the amount lost at over $1,000,000.

The Philadelphia Press says: "Undoubtedly one reason why the Round Table did not so decidedly succeed that it might prudently have dared a future of which no American is afraid, is in the fact that it was not purely a literary paper. One of its leading contributors was General McClellan, a gentleman understood to be a Presidential candidate; and while it professed to be and was in a measure independent, its opinions were perceptibly influenced by the party in opposition to the Administration. It was an able paper, in many respects, and though it promised at first more than it afterwards performed it maintained a high position. As one of the best of our literary periodicals, its cessation is to be regretted, but its failure should not discourage those who still believe that a great periodical can be established which shall be a permanent expression and proof of the ability of American writers and the appreciation of the American public."

SAYERS the Round Table Commendeth: If we could have our way, not another soldier should be voted by Towns and Cities in the way of extra Local Bodies, to shield any body liable to do military duty from going to the war. To the determination of the materialists of the Copperheads who tell us they will not go, and that we may, if we want the rebels subdued, we are in favor of the Republicans and all men, saying emphatically and firmly, you shall do your share, if the draft-wheel elects you. Let them say we are done giving our disproportionate share, either of men or money. Give all classes of men to understand if they are to live in this country, and enjoy the protection of this government that a due share of their muscle shall be expected in its defense.

The State of North Carolina owns salt works of considerable extent at Wilmington. They were erected at a cost of $100,000, and have been carried on to an additional expense of $14,787.78. The receipts for the sale, and the sum due in May last, amounted to $100,883.45. About two hundred and seventy men are employed in the manufacture. By the report of D. C. Worth, salt commissioner, it appears that the works produced 62,900 bushels for the year ending April 30, 1864, which has been sold at an average of $7.75, per bushel, amounting to $480,500. The present market price of this staple is $25 per bushel. The works were injured by an ingurgitation of our troops, but have since been repaired.

The New York Tribune says that before the Alabama went into action Semmes made a little speech to his men, pronouncing with the words: "England expects every man to do his duty" — more euphonious certainly than "G. S. A. expects" or "Dixie expects." True, too. For the Alabama was a British ship, and manned chiefly by British seamen. It was England that indulged in expectations, as Capt. Semmes well knew, and she has not yet got over her disappointment. The Tribune thinks she should probably be the lesson which the Kearsarge taught her and build a new navy.

New York city does not seem likely to fill her quota of over 20,000 men by the 5th of September. New Jersey and the New England States pay higher bounties than the Supervisors' Board of New York offers; and the scheme to fill up Gen. Hancock's corps with substitutes has proved a failure. To fill the quota in time to avert a draft it would be necessary to recruit at the rate of 750 men a day for the next five weeks. Thus far the daily average of enlistments has been only 22 men.

Among the delegates elected by the Indiana State Convention to the Chicago Convention, Washington, Bradley, of Lawrence county, who served two years in the rebel army, Messrs. Pettit, and Fitch, two other of the electors, were Breckinridge electors in 1860.

The tobacco crop has flourished up, the valley of the Connecticut during all the dry weather, and never looked better than it does now. The farmers have learned that wet weather is not essential to success in setting the plants.

LOCAL MATTERS.

TRADE of furniture advertised by H. C. Heerman, to take place to-morrow, is postponed by reason of sickness in the family, until further notice.

SOMETHING GOOD.—Mr. Gustave Fritz has sent us a bottle of Soddy water imported by him from the celebrated spring in Germany. It is said to possess certain medicinal properties similar to the water of Saratoga Springs.

BONN OVEN.—Mrs. Phoebe A. Fairchild was this morning bound over in the sum of $500, by Justice Hudson, to appear before the Circuit Court and answer to the charge of stealing silk from the store of Rice, Gaul & Rice.

A ROBBERY.—The case of burglary which we mentioned a day or two since is having occurred on Milton Avenue, we have learned was at the house of Mr. Alonso Zimmerman near Mt. Zion, the amount stolen was $158.63 in money, and $12 worth of dry goods. No clue has been obtained of the robbers.

ATTENTION.—There being a general desire that a sum should be raised by subscription to release all soldiers from the burden of the tax voted on $300, which the friends of soldiers holding lots in this city are requested to hand in a description of the same at the office of C. G. Williams, E. H. Benham or at the City Treasurer's office during the present week, in order that the sum required may be ascertained.

August 1st, 1864.

ALMOST A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—There was a very narrow escape from a serious Railroad accident, near the depot in this city, on Saturday afternoon last. Just after the train moved away from the platform, and before much speed had been attained, a wheel from one of the coaches filled with passengers came off, throwing the car from the track. Slight injury to the car and a detention of a few minutes were the only damage. It makes one shudder to think what might have been the result had the train been going faster.

THAT LES DOLLARS.—Editor's Gazette:—Permit us through your columns to remind the citizens of Janesville of that city's bounty of forty dollars which was promised our husbands and sons about two years ago. At those last seven dollars of that bounty you are due, and as the fear of the draft has kindled the patriotism in the hearts of most of our citizens, we would suggest that while they are striving to raise a tax on the little homes that our husbands left us, in order that they may pay to each man who will enlist, the sum of two hundred dollars, to please remember "that less dollars," for we would like to principal and interest.

WE THINK IT WOULD REFLECT AS MUCH HONOR ON THE CITY, TO FULFILL THE PROMISES THEN MADE AS TO TAX THE PROPERTY OF SOLDIERS NOW IN THE FIELD.

IN AN ARTICLE IN THE Gazette OF MARCH 1864, WRITTEN BY JAMES M. BURGESS, ON HIS BOUNTY QUESTION, HE SAYS IT OUGHT TO BE PAID UPON THE CASH CAPITAL OF ONE MILLION DOLLARS, BEING THE LARGEST CAPITAL OF ANY PARTICIPATING COMPANY IN THE COUNTRY, IN ADDITION TO THIS THEY HAVE A CASH SURPLUS OF THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS. THIS COMPANY DIVIDED LAST YEAR TO POLICY HOLDERS A LARGER PER CENT. THAN ANY OF THE OTHER PARTICIPATING COMPANIES, AND STANDS AMONG THE HEAVIEST AND SOUNDEST INSTITUTIONS IN NEW YORK. THEY WILL INSURE MERCHANTS, BUILDINGS AND OTHER INSURABLE PROPERTY. E. L. DIMOCK IS THE AGENT FOR JANEVILLE AND VICINITY.

WE LEARN FROM THE GREEN BAY Advocate THAT COL. JAMES A. HOWE, OF THE 32D WISCONSIN, RETURNED HOME WEDNESDAY OF LAST WEEK, HAVING RESIGNED HIS COMMISSION IN THE ARMY, AND ACCEPTED A PLACE IN THE CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN RAILWAY CO. IN THE MANAGEMENT OF ITS LEGAL AFFAIRS.

THESE ARE AT PRESENT SOME 3,000 WORKERS, EMPLOYED IN THE SPRINGFIELD ARSENAL, AMOUNTING TO $480,500. THE PRESENT MARKET PRICE OF THIS STAPLE IS $25 PER BUSHEL. THE WORKS WERE INJURED BY AN INGURGATION OF OUR TROOPS, BUT HAVE SINCE BEEN REPAIRED.

THE WASHINGTON Republican imagines that if the rebels had come with the fortifications of the city they could not have stood against the charges of the hotel keepers.

THE HIGH PRICE OF PAPER HAS CAUSED THE BANGOR DAILY Times TO DISCONTINUE ITS ONE DOLLAR SUBSCRIPTIONS, AND DEPEND ALONE UPON THE SALE OF SINGLE PAPERS FOR REVENUE.

MANY SOLDIERS' WIVES.

THE DAY GOOPS BUSINESS AGAIN.—(WE SET YOU DOWN THE OTHER DAY ABOUT THIS UNFORTUNATE DISCUSSION, AND THOUGHT WE WOULD HAVE NO MORE OF IT; BUT THE GHOST WILL NOT DROWN IN OUR BIDDING, AND SO AN OLD LADY TAKES A CLATTER AT.—EDITOR.)

EDITORS' Gazette:—DO NOT SHUT YOUR EYES TO THE DISCUSSION OF CLERKSHIP, UNTIL "OLD LADY" ASSURES YOU THESE GIRLS WERE IN NOVEMBER. THEIR NAMES WERE NEVER REFERRED TO THAT ADDRESS, FROM ANY CHILDISH AMBITION TO SEE THEMSELVES IN PRINT, VICE, AND AGAIN AGAIN TO SEE THEMSELVES IN THE PAGES. WE WOMEN FEEL, IF WE CANNOT SO LOGICALLY UNDERSTAND IT, AND WE ARE WILLING AND ANXIOUS TO DO WHAT EVER WE CAN. WE CANNOT FIGHT; OUR HEARTS KNOW THAT! WE NATURALLY SHRINK FROM VICTORY. WE TREMBLE TO THINK OF THE TERRIBLE SCENES NOW ENACTING BY OUR BROTHERS IN THE FIELD. BUT WE CAN DO SOMETHING TO LIGHTEN THE BURDEN; OUR MEN ARE CALLED TO BATTLE IN THIS STRUGGLE. SOME OF US, OUR YOUNG LADIES, ESPECIALLY THOSE WHO SO COURAGEOUSLY GAVE THEIR NAMES TO A CRIMINAL PUBLIC, HAVE BEEN WELL EDUCATED FOR THIS EMERGENCY. IT ALMOST SEEMS PROBABLY SO. NOW ALL THEY ASK IS A FRIEND TO HELP AND I DO HOPE NEITHER SAYS NOR "SARKASMA," WILL PETER THEM DOWN.

FOR FURTHER INQUIRIES OF THE SUBSCRIBER, OR THE NEW WOOLEN FACTORY, OR M. P. COOPER, JR., BOSTON, SATURDAY, AUGUST 1.

MR. PONCEAU WAS ASKED WHETHER IT WAS POSSIBLE TO CURE A BLIND ALLEY, WHEN IT DOES NOW. THE FARMERS HAVE LEARNED THAT WET WEATHER IS NOT ESSENTIAL TO SUCCESS IN SETTING THE PLANTS.

PURSUING THEIR PLAN OF SENDING HELP TO OUR SONS AND BROTHERS ABROAD.

THE WELL KNOWN TRADES, MANUFACTURES AND MECHANICAL ESTABLISHMENTS MUST BE SUPERVISED BY THEM. BUT, PERHAPS WOMEN MIGHT HELP OR TAKE THE PLACES OF SOME BRAVE PATRIOTIC MEN WHO ARE WISHING TO BE RELEASED FROM THE FEMININE OCCUPATION THEY ARE NOW CONFINED TO, TO RESPOND TO THIS, WE LAST CALL FOR $500,000 MORE.

WE HAVE EVERY REASON TO BE PROUD OF OUR PATRIOTIC MERCHANTS. HOW COULD THEY WELL HAVE DONE MORE? AND THE FEAR WILL EVER START AS WE RECALL THE NOBLE ONES WHO HAVE BEEN ENCOURAGED BY THEM TO LEAVE INHERITANCE UPON THEM, AND GO TO DIE FOR CIVIL LIBERTY. WE REMEMBER AND BECAUSE SOME, PERHAPS FROM THEIR ORGANIZATION, REFUSE TO GO DOWN, AND HELP THEM, STILL HONOR TO THE MERCHANTS AND CLOTHES OF JANEVILLE.

I HAVE WRITTEN ALL THE ABOVE SIMPLY TO GET THIS SUGGESTION. THAT A MERCHANT WHO SHALL EMPLOY FEMALE HELP IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE "GIRL'S" SUGGESTION, SHALL HAVE THE TRADE OF THE WOMEN. WE WILL HELP THOSE WHO HELP OUR COUNTRY, SHALL RECEIVE THE SAME CREDIT THEREFOR AS IF HE HAD FURNISHED A SUBSTITUTE, AND IS EXEMPTED FROM MILITARY SERVICE FOR THE TIME FOR WHICH HE HAS BEEN DRAFTED.

DOES NOT THIS CONFLICT WITH YOUR ANSWER TO "A READER OF THE TIMES"? IN THIS MORNING'S ISSUE? I WAS DRAFTED AND PAID $300 AND ACCORDING TO THE ABOVE EXTRACT I CONSIDER MYSELF EXEMPT.

MONDAY, AUGUST 1, 1864.

The Round Table has given up the ghost. Reason: want of patronage and high prices of everything. This will be a severe loss to the thinking public. That paper was by far the ablest, purest literary journal ever published in this country. We mourn its death as that of an old friend.—Albion Evening Journal.

And we do not. The Round Table had ability, and was creditable as a literary enterprise; but it prostituted itself to McClellanism, from the start, and all its literary worth could not save it from the coldness of starvation. In like manner Vanity Fair, which prospered so long as it was true to Freedom, came to grief as soon as it went over to the Conservatives, and lost its wit and patronage together. There is no need to regret the death of either. If literature cannot be true to Freedom, it had better not exist.—Pittsburg Gazette.

CHANGE.—Mr. George W. Bliss, for seventeen years the editor and proprietor of the Mineral Point Tribune has withdrawn, perhaps for life, having leased his office for a term of years to Maj. G. H. Otis, late of 2d Wis. Mr. Bliss has not taken much active interest as an editor, having we suppose over dosed early in life. Of late one side of the Tribune has been printed at the Journal office, Madison, which is a sign of premature decay in a paper and a most certain promise that sooner or later there is to be a printing office for sale or rent exceedingly cheap. Maj. Otis will bring order into the Tribune camp, and see that both sides of its fence are bought by the same father. These journal bastards ought to be stopped by act of legislature.—Grant Co. Herald.
